

LOGOTYPE

Dimensions - construction

Here you may see precise measures and proportions for the logotype. A natural and simple appearance is founded in a clean design and construction rules.

Logotype is embedded in a network made from the symbol's height, which is the size of the network's unit. This reference point is called "height 1" which 100% represents the basic unit of the network. This basis defines the relations inside the logo.